Masterclass schedule Lessons and the final concert will take place at Palazzo Leti-Sansi, via Arco di Druso 37, Spoleto, as follows:– From 10.00 to 13.00 and from 14.30 to 18.30 on the first two days of the Masterclass.– from 10.00 to 13.00 on the day of the final concert. At the end of the first two days, Maestro Gatti will give a lecture on the relationship between Baroque music and poetic language. A cembalo player will be provided to accompany during individual lessons. Full students are strongly recommended to be present during the entire class time. Repertoire There choice of the repertoire, dating from the end of the 16th and the end of the 18th century, is free. Therefore we suggest: ☐ 17th century Italian, German, English and Austrian sonatas; ☐ 18th century French sonatas; ☐ A. Corelli's op. V sonatas; ☐ 18th century Italian and German sonatas; ☐ sonatas and partitas by J.S. Bach; ☐ fantasias for solo violin by G.P. Telemann; ☐ sonatas for solo violin by G. Tartini; ☐ sonatas with obbligato harpsichord by J.S. Bach, C.P.E. Bach, W.A. Mozart; ☐ violin concertos by Italian, German and French composers. If the selected pieces include an accompaniment, students must submit a printed copy of the part to the cembalo player provided by the Spoleto Music Academy. Final Concert The most deserving students, in the unquestionable judgement of the teacher, are required to perform in the final concert to be held on Sunday 29 September 2024 at 5 p.m. in the historical Palazzo Leti-Sansi The choice of pieces to be performed in the concert will be at the sole discretion of the teacher. Certificates/Scholarships All full students will receive a certificate of attendance at the end of the course. Scholarships will be awarded to the most deserving students at the sole discretion of the teacher. The best students of the masterclass will be recommended to concert associations for future engagements. Hotels, restaurants and transfers All travel, food and accommodation costs are the responsibility of the student. Agreements have been made with hotels and restaurants in Spoleto; information can be obtained from the secretariat of the Association "Visioni d'Autore" or from the Hotels page of this website.
